Next, we journey to Cholula to visit the Sanctuary of Our Lady of the Remedies, a 16th-century church built atop the world's largest pyramid by volume. After taking in its stunning views, we return to Mexico City for dinner and an overnight stay.

Martyred in Japan in 1596, he is honored in the cathedral's stunning nave murals. The convent also features early frescoes, including a striking crucifixion and a unique spiritual genealogy of St. Francis. Time permitting, we attend Mass in the morning before transferring to the airport for our return flights home, carrying with us memories and keepsakes that will last a lifetime.
